

REPOA December 2023

*River's End is decorated, and the neighbors are delighted,
Cliff's memorial tree hosts a red cardinal alighted.
Each home special with Christmas lights bright,
It's holiday season in River's End tonight.*

*Homes are decorated in lights, red and green,
Such a wonderful sight to be seen.
Wreaths are hung, trees are lit,
Neighbors gather at the pond to see Santa sit.*

*The community assembles for the annual parade,
Children watch to see Santa displayed.
Joe Culp's bonfire roars, Christi Culp's cocoa is hot,
It's a festive camaraderie making it the perfect spot.*

*Thank you, neighbors, for once again...
You made this Christmas time a perfect ten.
So let's all raise a glass and cheer,
For the best holiday of the year.*

A Bounty of Daily Blessings

In these most troubling of times, we truly appreciate, more than ever, the blessings of living in River's End! * We are as safe here as anywhere. * We have shared values and common interests with our neighbors, who are friendly, helpful, thoughtful, and solicitous. * We have a newly-formed group (the Care Committee) comprised of people ready to assist others. * We have residents who are committed to maintaining, and enhancing, the livability and beauty of our development for all and who host community-wide events, open to all. * Houses and properties are well maintained. * Our development is thoughtfully laid out and aesthetically pleasing, with gracefully-flowing streets. * We have a generous measure of common grounds, green belts, an ecological award-winning pond, a delightful walking path, and wonderfully mature and majestic landscaping throughout. * Our HOA fees are enviably low. * Our property values are enviably high. * And, yes, even as we move through the coldest and darkest of days and times, we have a bounty of daily blessings to be grateful for. ~ Barry & Linda Goldberg
